

TRANSFERS IRELAND 2024

Your departure base can organise your transfer from and to the airport in Ireland. Transfers are operated by coaches or mini vans (shared service between customers).

You can directly book your transfer by contacting your departure base, at least one week before departure. Transfer charge is payable when arriving at the base. Transfer order form is available on www.penichette.com

For flights arriving after 6pm there may be a surcharge. Please contact your departure base for more information.
