INSURANCE AND DAMAGE DEPOSIT

Insurance

All our boats are covered for all accidental damages (i.e., collision with another boat or a building) suffered by our boat or its dinghy, or to a third party by the use of the boat. However, the captain may still also be financially liable for additional penalties if he has broken navigation rules or willfully caused an accident. Passengers on board the boat, their personal effects and their public liability are not covered by this insurance. You will be asked for a credit or debit card imprint to cover any fine, any costs incurred after running aground or any damage related to guarantees' exclusions (see exclusions)

Should I choose the damage deposit or the damage waiver? As already mentioned, the boat is covered for all accidental damages. However, the Captain remains financially liable with the amount of the damage deposit requested on departure day. Alternatively, you can subscribe to the damage waiver, a non-refundable sum paid on departure day. In this case, there is no financial liability for the captain (except for "Exclusions from the insurance guarantees" listed below) and the damage deposit will be decreased down to 500€.

Damage deposit

The damage deposit guarantees the payment of the sums due by the captain in the event of an accident or in case of an exclusion from the insurance guarantees (see below). Otherwise, the deposit is fully returned to the captain at the end of the cruise.

Damage waiver

The damage waiver is a non-refundable sum paid by the captain, which:

- Diminish the damage deposit down to 500€
- Exempts repair costs in the event of an accident, except in case of an exclusion from the insurance guarantees (see below & Locaboat's Booking Conditions).

EXCLUSIONS FROM INSURANCE GUARANTEES

(see the section "insurance" in applicable Booking Conditions)

The following items are never covered by the boat insurance nor by the damage waiver:

- All passengers on board, their personal belongings, as well as their civil liability
- Accidental damages on board (ex. burnt work surface, torn curtains, loss of the gangway, etc.)
- The deterioration, break or loss of boat's equipment (cf inventory) not caused by a declared accident
- The hired bicycles
- The damages to railings, outside seats, Biminis
- The damages and charges for towing caused by running aground
- Breakdown service for a blocked toilet caused by passengers
- The abandonment fee of the boat

If you choose the damage waiver or the inclusive pack, a diminished deposit of 500 euros will be requested on the day of departure.

Are always excluded from the insurance guarantees (and remaining the exclusive responsibility of the captain) the damage, losses, recourse and resultant costs of serious breaches such as:

- Driving while being drunk or under the effect of drugs, or also of substances affecting the consciousness or the capacity to react
- Deliberate breach to the navigation rules
- Misleading declaration
